- B. The Pastor is the spiritual leader of the Church and responsible for all worship services and ministries.
- C. The Pastor preaches and teaches the Gospel to win souls to Christ and to edify the Saints.
- D. The Pastor, or a designee, will administer the Christian ordinances (Baptism and Communion) and other rituals and ceremonies such as weddings, funeral/memorial services, infant dedications, etc.
- E. The Pastor oversees the membership and is in charge of their spiritual welfare.
- F. The Pastor can seek the advice, cooperation, and assistance from the Deacon Board in matters pertaining to the spiritual programs of the Church.

Section 2: Qualifications and Selection Process

- A. The qualifications include belief in God, Jesus Christ, Holy Spirit, the Bible, Baptist Articles of Faith, and the Church Covenant; possess excellent personal character, ministerial education, ministerial experience, leadership and administrative skills; teaching ability, preaching ability, and belief in this Church's faith and principles; and ordained and license.
- B. Upon vacancy, the Deacon Board will recommend an Interim Pastor to be approved at a business meeting.
- C. Upon vacancy, the Deacon Board will form a Pastoral Search Committee, within 60 days, composed of two Deacons, two Trustees, two Advisory Council members, and three members-at-large, to include youth members, whenever possible, to recruit, review qualifications, and recommend candidates for panel interviews and trial sermons.
- D. The Pastoral Search Committee will visit a prospective minister's home church to collect information regarding the qualifications.
- E. The Pastoral Search Committee will develop other evaluations to collect the prospective minister's local community information from civic, elected leaders, and Pastors in the community.
- F. Only one candidate is to be presented to the Church at a time.
- G. The selected candidate for the Pastorate requires majority-vote at a Regular or Special Business Meeting that has been properly announced as described in Article II, Section C.
- H. The Pastoral Search Committee duties will end upon the appointment of a Pastor.

Section 3: Employment, Compensation, Benefits, and Evaluation

- A. The appointed Pastor must become a member of the Church within 30 days after the appointment and have all membership rights and privileges.
- B. The Chairs of the Deacon and Trustee Boards (or their designees) will negotiate the initial two-year contract and performance standards with the new Pastor, with contract approval by the Church. The new Pastor is not installed until the initial contract is signed.
- C. At the end of the first twelve-month period of hire, the new Pastor will have the initial twelve-month probationary period and evaluation review, based on the performance standards in the signed contract. The initial performance standards and review will be conducted by the Chairs of the Deacon and Trustee Boards. The Advisory Council will develop the succeeding performance standards and conduct performance evaluations.
- D. The negotiated written employment contract will be comprised of but not limited to job duties; compensation; performance standards; office hours; vacation days; retirement contributions; transportation reimbursement; benefits and co-pays; and other conditions of employment.
- E. The terms of the employment contract are to be negotiated every two years with the incumbent Pastor based on the date of hire. Failure of the incumbent Pastor to negotiate and sign the employment contract will result in an automatic resignation and end the employment and pastoral relationship with the Church. A joint certified letter from the Chairs of the Deacon and Trustee Boards will be mailed as documentation.
- F. The Advisory Council will evaluate the incumbent Pastor every two years based on the agreed contract's performance standards. The process for evaluating the performance standards will begin no earlier than six months prior to the end of the incumbent Pastor's contract; and will be completed no later than the two months prior to the date that the current contract ends.

Section 4: Pastor's Release of Contract

- A. The Pastor may give a two-week notice to end employment and terminate the contract. No vote by the Church is necessary.
- B. The Pastor's contract can be terminated by the Church upon a presentation of cause at a Special Business Meeting that has been announced as described in Article 11, Section C. The termination requires a 2/3-vote at the business meeting.
- C. Pastor's mandatory retirement age is 75 years.

Section 5: Pastor's Death

- A. In the event that the incumbent Pastor dies during the term of office, the widow will receive two months of compensation and benefits from the date of death.
- B. The Church will establish a mourning period.
- C. The Deacon Board will identify and seat the Pastoral Search Committee with oversight, no later than 60 days after death.

Section 6: Associate Ministers

- A. The qualifications include belief in God, Jesus Christ, Holy Spirit, the Bible, Baptist Articles of Faith, and Church Covenant; and possess excellent personal character, ministerial education, ministerial experience, leadership and administrative skills, teaching ability, preaching ability, and belief in this Church's faith and principles.
- B. Must be ordained or at least licensed.
- C. Job duties include assisting at the worship services, participating in the ministries of the Church, and other duties assigned by the Pastor.

- D. Associate Ministers are not under a contract and but will be compensated Per Diem to deliver sermons at Sunday morning worship services and funeral eulogies in the Pastor's absence.
- E. With the death of the Pastor or in the case of an incapacitating illness, the Deacon Board will assign an Associate Minister to be the Interim Pastor. In the event of a long-term interim assignment (six months or more), an employment contract is to be negotiated by the Chairs of the Deacon and Trustee Boards as described in Article III, Section 3. In both cases the Church can approve these assignments by a majority vote at a Business Meeting.
- F. In cases where the Pastoral Search Committee recommends a current Associate Minister as the permanent Pastor; Article III, Section 2D and 2E evaluation steps are omitted.

Article IV: Church Officers

Section 1: The Church Officers

- A. The Church officers are the Deacons, Trustees, Church Treasurer, Assistant Church Treasurer, Church Financial Secretary, Assistant Church Financial Secretary, Church Clerk, Assistant Church Clerk, Deaconesses, Announcement Clerks, Parliamentarian, and Moderator.
- B. The elected officers are the Trustees, Church Treasurer, Assistant Church Treasurer, Church Financial Secretary, Assistant Church Financial Secretary, Church Clerk, Assistant Church Clerk, Announcement Clerks, and Moderator.
- C. The Chair of the Constitution and Bylaws Committee serves as the Church's Parliamentarian.
- D. All Church Officers must be Active Members. Any officer deemed inactive as a member will also be considered inactive as a Church Officer. To return to active status as a Deacon and/or Trustee will be determined by these Bylaws and Church policies.
- E. An elected officer may resign from office upon giving a two-week notice.
- F. An elected officer can be removed from office by a majority-vote of the Church. An officer's position will be considered vacated when the officer (1) has not performed the duties and (2) has been absent from board/committee meetings and/or Business Meetings for four consecutive months, without notification to the Chair of the Deacon Board. A joint certified letter from the Chairs of the Deacon and Trustee Boards will be mailed as documentation.
- G. The Pastor; members of the Deacon, Deaconess, and Trustee Boards; the Church Treasurer, Financial Secretary, and Church Clerk (including the Assistants); and other members and officers where financial matters and contracts are approved must avoid situations and activities where personal and family interests could conflict or appear to conflict with the interest of the Church. A conflict of interest may arise when a member's direct decision or vote can directly affect the member's professional, personal, financial, or business interests. It is noted that not all-financial interests may be a conflict-of-interest. The potential conflict-of-interest must be disclosed promptly to the Chair of the Trustee Board (or Chair of the Deacon Board if it affects that officer). The Joint Deacon and Trustee Board will review and discuss the matter and decide regarding the conflict. Failure for a member to disclose a potential conflict-of-interest may result in the appropriate sanctions, up to removal from office. The member is excused from meetings where discussion or vote on the matter is presented.

- H. All officers must keep secret and not disclose to non-members or make personal use of any confidential information concerning the Church's finances, operations, membership, or business, which becomes known during the tenure in office.
- I. A special election will be promptly held at a regular Business Meeting to fill the remaining term of the elected officer's vacancy.
- J. All officers are installed in January.

Section 2: Officer Records

- A. At the end of the officer's term, all records must be submitted to the new officer by January 1.
- B. The retention period for all financial records (vouchers, bids, receipts, etc.) is 7 years.

Section 3: Nomination and Election Process

- A. There will be an annual election process to elect and/or re-elect officers with expiring terms.
- B. The Nominating Committee will be elected at the August Business Meeting.
- C. Officers with expiring terms for that year must be announced at the August Business Meeting.
- D. Names for the Trustee Board must be submitted to the Deacon Board by the last Sunday in September.
- E. The Deacon Board will interview new candidates for the Trustee Board. Incumbent and returning Trustee Board members need not be interviewed. One week prior to the election, the Deacon Board will submit the candidate names to the Nominating Committee for placement on the ballot for election at the November Business Meeting.
- F. The Nominating Committee will present a slate of names at the October Business Meeting.
- G. Additional names will be taken from the floor before the November election, excluding names for the Trustee Board because of the Deacon Board interview process.
- H. The Nominating Committee will prepare the ballot, including the names of the candidates for the Trustee Board, and conduct the election.
- I. Elected officers must obtain a majority-vote. Where there is more than one open office with many candidates, and where the members can vote for the number of open offices, the candidates receiving the greatest number of votes, in descending order, is equal to the number of open vacant offices. One unanimous ballot may be cast in cases where there is only one name for each office.
- J. All Officers are installed in December.
- K. All Officer's terms-of-office begin on January 1.
- L. At the November Business Meeting, five Tellers (active members) are selected to count the ballots, announce the count, and present the results to the Moderator.

Section 4: Identification of Presidents/Chairs
